

Guest Room Reservations:

A guest room block has been made available to Conference attendees so that can take advantage of discounted group rates until Monday, April 16, 2018.

To secure you reservation by phone, call 855-342-4712 and please notify our reservations department that you are attending the ACFAP 2018 Conference so that you can receive the conference rate. To enhance your Jackson Hole experience the conference room rate is valid up to three days prior to the conference start date and three days post of the conference end date.

For your convenience, reservations for the ACFAP 2018 Conference can also be made via a web link found on the 2018 Seminar page on the ACFAP website. No special code is required; just click on the web link in your browser and the same deposit/cancellation conditions still apply.

At the time of reservation, a refundable guest room deposit is required equal to 40% of the estimated guest room reservation revenue value, with the remaining balance due at 21 days prior to your arrival date. This deposit is refundable if we receive your cancellation up to 21 days prior to your reservation arrival date. Within 21 days, your deposit/payment is non-refundable.
